

A WIFE'S OPINION.
(From the Pittsburgh Post.)
"I used to imagine my husband thought only of me, but now I have decided that his thoughts have a wider range."
"How do you think they run?"
"About in this order—bushball, clothes, billiards, business, his bull-dog and me."

To Fight Tuberculosis
The best weapons any sufferer can obtain are those which Nature places close at hand—fresh air, plain, well-cooked food, rest and personal hygiene. Also it is well to keep your hopes high and your courage strong.
But many cases do not yield even to the fullest exertion of helpful measures. Even to their incipience there is need for something more. Nature does all she can, but must have help—and medication is indicated.
In many instances Eckman's Alternative has been used with beneficial results. No exaggerated claims are made for it. Its reputation rests on what it actually has done. And it is safe to try, for it does not contain any poisonous or habit-forming drugs. You can get it from Hiker-Hugman Co., your druggist or direct, Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia.—Adv.

PLANS OF ACTION ARE FORMED ON FORD PEACE SHIP

Questions Asked in Parliament in Regard to Parly Coming to England.

ABOARD PEACE SHIP OSCAR II. (via wireless to Stinson, Mass.), Dec. 6.—Skipper Henry Ford to-day set in motion the machinery by which he hopes "to bring the boys out of the trenches."

Ford began organizing peace committees from groups of clergymen, students and other guests aboard the peace ship. Even the newspapermen were drafted into service.

Each of these committees will meet a corresponding committee from a neutral country at the coming peace conference. They will work together in choosing an international commission to sit for the remainder of the war to receive or offer suggestions for peace. The committee's business primarily will be to give the widest possible publicity to all peace suggestions in contrast to the secret methods of diplomats.

It now appears certain that at least some of the peace pilgrims, including the leaders, will attempt to cross Germany enroute from Denmark to Holland. They believe the authorities of no belligerent nation would dare interfere with their mission, despite the fact that they lack passports for Germany.

The International Peace Commission probably will sit in Copenhagen instead of The Hague, because of better cable facilities.

LONDON, Dec. 6.—A request made in the House of Commons this afternoon by Sir Edwin A. Cornwall that an intimation be sent to Henry Ford and William Jennings Bryan that their proposed peace mission to this country would be "irritating and unwelcome" at the present time, drew the response from Lord Robert Cecil, that the passports of the members of the peace mission only had been issued for neutral countries.

A rapid bombardment of questions came from different parts of the House, inviting the Under Secretary, seeing "that these people left amid a storm of ridicule," that he convey to them in whatever neutral country they find themselves the intimation that they are not wanted here at any time.

Discussion was closed when Will Crooks, a Labor member, asked: "If they have the right of asylum here, can we certify them to be insane?"

CONTESTANTS WIN
FIRST CLASH OVER
WILL OF A. F. ENO

Order Gives Them Right to Inspect All Papers of Dead
Multi-Millionaire.

A dozen lawyers appeared before Surrogate Fowler to-day in the first preliminary skirmish of the legal fight for the millions left by the late Amos F. Eno, whose seven relatives, including Amos and Gifford Pinchot, and their sister, Lady Johnstone, have begun a contest of his will.

The proceedings to-day were instituted by the contestants in an effort to prevent the temporary administrators from enjoying full commissions on the estate under their control. Surrogate Fowler decided last week he would appoint William F. Eno, a brother and one of the contestants, as a temporary administrator, to act jointly with Lucius H. Beers and William Mitchell, who were named in the will.

Attorney Wallace McFarlane, representing Columbia University, the residuary legatee named in the contestants were attempting by to-day's action to go on a "fishing excursion," as he had found in the papers submitted for the Surrogate's signature a joker in the form of a clause which gave the attorneys for the contestants the right to inspect any of the decedent's papers and securities in possession of the temporary administrators.

"Well," the Surrogate commented, interrupting Mr. McFarlane, "and who have a better right than the members of the family to inspect the papers of the decedent?"

By fishing excursion, the lawyer explained, he meant the contestants wanted to go over all the papers in an attempt to discover a former will, which the relatives allege gave them larger shares in the estate than was bequeathed in the will offered for probate. It was finally agreed the relatives should have free access to the papers and securities.

SOPHIA MOHR FOUND.

Girl Who Disappeared Is Discovered at Hartford.

Chief of Police Farrell of Hartford, Conn., notified Police Headquarters here to-day that he had in custody fifteen-year-old Sophia Mohr of No. 10 St. Mark's place, whose father, Elias Mohr, a garment fitter, asked the police yesterday to search for her. Sophia's parents were notified to go for her at once.

Chief Farrell did not give the circumstances under which the girl was found. In asking for police help the girl's brother, Dr. Frank Mohr, said she might have been lured away by some one who had encouraged her love of dancing as she was anxious to go on the stage.

$10,000 STARTS BOY SCOUTS' PLAN TO RAISE $200,000

Leader Scores Ernest Thompson Seton for Lack of Patriotism.

Socialists and Anarchists stood outside No. 57 Chambers Street to-day, where the Boy Scouts of America opened their campaign to raise $200,000, and urged persons who paused in front of the headquarters not to contribute money toward the cause. Their argument was that the Scouts was a military organization and that they were opposed to militarism.

Dr. Max Hildebrand, an architect with offices in Fifth Avenue, was one of those who did the "Socialistic picketing." When word of the move was carried into the headquarters, where Chief Scout James E. West was hard at work, he dropped everything long enough to denounce the move as "a contemptible display of Socialism and anarchy."

"The worst part of it," he added, "is that the Boy Scouts does not make for warfare. Its prime object is to teach the boys discipline. The Boy Scouts have not been taught the manual of arms. Yet the Socialists and Anarchists are trying to make a fiasco of this campaign of ours."

"As stated by Dr. William T. Hornaday of the New York Zoological Society, the Boy Scout movement is a great national antidote for the devilish spirit of anarchy to the States and nation that is now cropping up like rank and poisonous weeds all along the path of our nation's progress."

The Chief Scout then referred to the resignation of Ernest Thompson Seton as a member of the Boy Scouts, who retired yesterday. Seton, according to officials of the organization, is not an American citizen but owes allegiance to Great Britain. Seton was given a chance to become a citizen. West said, but dodged the issue and refused to make a definite promise.

"Indeed," added the Chief Scout, "he went further and repeated his objection to the Boy Scouts' handbook, including a chapter on patriotism, and contended that the Boy Scouts of America should not undertake to have boys pledge allegiance to their country, but should leave them free to support our country when they thought our country was right and to damn it when they thought it was wrong."

"He personally made it clear that he damned our country for most of its past history. This is the real and only reason that Mr. Seton is not now Chief Scout of the Boy Scouts of America."

The campaign was started to-day with $10,000. This announcement was made at a luncheon in the Chambers Street headquarters. While the luncheon was taking place detachments of Boy Scouts were in front of the City Hall giving exhibitions of "First Aid" and wig-wagging messages up to the dome of The World Building and thence to their headquarters in Madison Square. Among the messages wig-wagged was one of congratulation from Acting Mayor McAneny.

DENIAL BY SPRING-RICE.

British Ambassador Made No Charge Against Swedish Minister.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—Sir Cecil Spring-Rice, the British Ambassador, to-day addressed a formal communication to Secretary Lansing denying published reports that the embassy had made representations to the American Government which alleged that W. A. P. Eken-gren, the Minister from Sweden here, had been transmitting communications from Count von Bernstorff, the German Ambassador, to the Berlin Foreign Office.

The published report said the British authorities had discovered the Swedish Minister had forwarded despatches in cable code and later in his diplomatic pouch. The British Ambassador's representations denied the statement entirely, and at the Swedish Legation a similar denial was made.
